Classic Leather - Deep Mahogany

£1,074 per hide

George Smith Classic Leather delivers a warm heritage appeal, transcending styles with timeless elegance. A versatile leather that is popular in both residential and commercial projects, Classic Leather is available in 18 stylish colours. Aniline-finished and lightly buffed, this pull-up leather presents a distinctive distressed and crackled finish. Its vibrant, aged look comes from a unique tanning process rich in oils and wax to create a textured leather, perfect for adding depth and style onto our furniture.
