The Commune Collection

The Muffin sofa is a playful embodiment of elegance and comfort, boasting a wonderfully voluminous silhouette and inviting curves that will instantly catch your eye. Wide rounded armrests and a low seat are reminiscent of traditional Turkish seating, encouraging you to kick back and lose yourself in a cosy embrace. The design of the Muffin sofa draws inspiration from Jean Royère's iconic "Polar Bear" sofa. Royère's work marked a shift in post-war interior design, embracing a more organic, comfortable, and human-centred aesthetic, in contrast to the traditional and austere styles of the time. You can see this rich history reflected in the Muffin sofa's design. The Muffin sofa provides a quiet place to unwind, letting the stresses of the day melt away, surrounded by the comforts of home. Whether entertaining or relaxing, the Muffin sofa becomes the heart of your living space, adaptable to the rhythm of daily life. To create a cohesive and stylish living space, pair it with other pieces from the collection, effortlessly enhancing your overall aesthetic.
