Gainsborough Carver Chair (unbuttoned)

From $4,190

The Gainsborough Carver Chair derives its name and charm from Thomas Gainsborough, a famed Georgian artist popular for his unique view of manor houses, and injects a delightful sense of history and culture into any design. The traditional yet neat arm swoop design, fully upholstered generous seat and backrest, and grooves cascading from the arms down to the front legs give it an opulent appeal. To enhance the aesthetic and maintain the classic look, our Gainsborough chair also has delightful nailhead trim detailing. Perfectly suited for dining rooms, hallways and occasional seating, the high backrest and curved armrests ensure a relaxed and comfortable posture. In this chair, our craftspeople have combined modern-day ergonomics with the charm and grandeur of the Georgian era, making it the preferred choice for those who appreciate elegance and fine detail.
