George Smith

Leather Specification Sheet

True Aniline Leather - Brown Patina

£2,034 per hide

Step into the timeless elegance of True Aniline Leather - where luxury meets longevity. This leather ages like fine wine, embracing life and morphing gracefully with passing time, enriching its surface. True Aniline Leather is one of the most favoured types of leather with traditional craftsmanship using vegetable tanning, creating a thick and robust leather perfect for upholstery. With time, these pieces can develop a unique patina, essentially improving with age and bestowing a classic, rich leather look that stands the test of time. Available in 13 beautiful colours, True Aniline Leather merges luxury with longevity, promising a product that is both aesthetically pleasing and timeless.

Specifications

Composition	100% Leather
Repeat	Hide / Approx. 55sqft

Due to variations in computer screens, we cannot guarantee that the colours shown here are truly representative of our products. Prior to purchasing we recommend that you order a sample.